I've been playing this game for under 24 hours of playing time and I only hit level 100. Unlike most games I have yet to buy a single item for real money. If you like puzzle type gem game you will LOVE this one!!! Thanks to the programmer and design team this game is very addictive and most importantly fun! I haven't had a single issue with the game freeze or shut down as reported in previous reviews.... They're gone. Also I've never paid a single in-game coin for power ups. Note: real time play so far is under 26 hours. This used to be my favorite game until I got a new phone and had to download the updated version. In the old version, you had to defeat Mr. Croco twice, once halfway through and again at the end. Now you have to defeat him four times and are only rewarded for the 2nd and 4th times. Also, it used to take 25 coins to continue playing a failed level. Now it takes 40. I still have the old version on my old phone and choose to play it instead. The new version doesn't work the same and now feels like a game designed to make you want to spend money to advance further. I'm at level 812 on the old version. It was not easy to get that far and is still a nice challenge. I'm at level 240 on the new version. It's not fun and challenging anymore because the rewards aren't the same. Now it's just stupid and will eventually be deleted from my new phone. Sorry for your inconvenience.This game doesn't have a sync option yet, but we will be adding sync feature for the game soon. Thank you for your patience. As a whole, I really enjoy this game. There are times when the pieces must be mixed immediately, not a good start. Luckily the player can reboot easily if too frustrated by purple blobs and exploding balls. There are no life limitations, so you can try again one level several times. My biggest frustration is the 3 continue limit as always I'm one step away from victory when I'm told I'm failing. Maybe a less harsh word?? A tip For future users: buy coins, but buy in-game power ups. 13 coins buy 15 extra moves! 25 coins for 5 moves otherwise. And that fork comes in very handy!!
